

DAVID RYU 4
L.A. CITY COUNCILMEMBER

Untold Civil Rights Stories Writing Contest

TEACHER APPRECIATION REWARD

Up to $200 for participating teachers

STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Multiple scholarships up to $100 each

ASIAN AMERICANS SPEAK OUT FOR JUSTICE

"For those whose built our communities, Untold Civil Rights Stories is dedicated to the women, men, and youth whose courage and boldness to speak out have helped us to advance our future."

Stewart Kwoh & Russell C. Leong,
Editors

IMPORTANT DATES

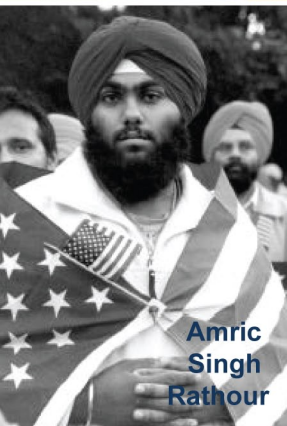

4/24/17 - Last day for teachers to register for participation

5/1/17 - Last day for students to submit their work

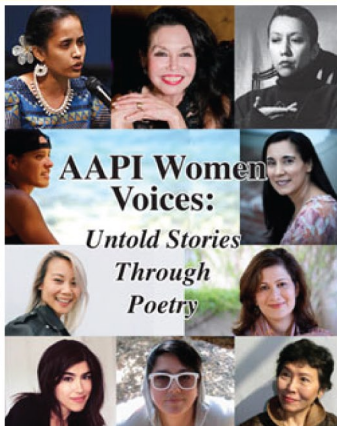

5/1/17 - Last day for teachers to submit their post contest survey

5/8/17 - Winners will be announced.

For contest rules, registration, process, and inquiries, please visit
AdvancingJustice-LA.org/Contest

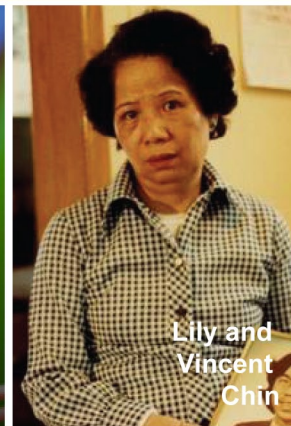

Amric
Singh
Rathour

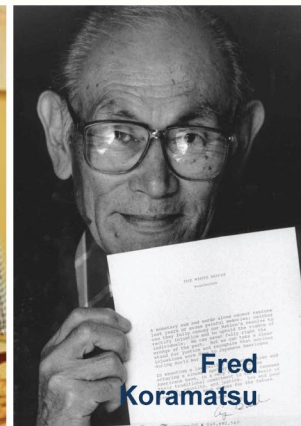

AAPI Women
Voices:
Untold Stories
Through
Poetry

George
Takei

Lily and
Vincent
Chin

Fred
Korematsu

SUBJECTS
STORIES

English Ethnic Studies U.S. History
Math Middle School Essay Writing
Biology / Life Sci / Inter-Coordinated Sci

George Takei: Leading Man
Vincent Chin - Lily Chin: The Courage to Speak Out
AAPI Women Voices: Untold Stories Through Poetry
One Man Seeks Justice from a Nation: Korematsu v. United States
A Citizen Fights for His Civil Rights after 9/11: Amric Singh Rathour and more...

COMMON CORE LESSON PLANS

GRADE 6-12

Lesson plans available at AdvancingJustice-LA.org/UntoldStories